CHANGES HIS COAT TO SUIT CIRCUMSTANCES.

Wheeling is a manufacturing town, and as the Governor (Hill) is a practical manufacturer, his speech, like the dyer's hand, became somewhat subdued to the color of the locality he is in. Yesterday, in an agricultural region, he spoke of, to and for farmers, and to-night his address was meant for workmen and manufacturers. —Wheeling Special to the New York World, (Union) Oct. 25.

LOCAL BRIEVES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

Big meeting at Elm Grove to-morrow evening.

The Grand this evening—James O'Connor Hamlet.

Oyster House this evening—Roland Reed in "A Woman Hater."

Another train load of iron for the new bridge to the island was unloaded yesterday.

There are ten disorderlies and one drunk on the docket for this morning's police court.

The Ladies' Vocal Club will meet at F. W. Danner & Co.'s this evening at 7:30 for rehearsal.

CHARLEY TALBERT, aged five, was struck by a companion with a hatchet, cutting off a finger.

A MARRIAGE LICENSE was issued Saturday to John Donnie, a native of Ireland, aged 29, and Mary Riley, a native of Wheeling, aged 28.

LILLIE BARNER was knocked down and run over by a buggy at the corner of Eoff and Thirty-second streets Saturday, but not gravely injured.

There was a little explosion of natural gas in B. F. Caldwell's residence Saturday, which caused a good deal of excitement, but did not result in any damage.

There was a big rush of sightseers to the Hobbs Glass Works yesterday to see the effect of Friday night's fire. The insurance on the burned buildings only reached $12,000, loss $50,000.

A CARLOAD of special scenery for use in "The Devil's Mine," to be presented at the Grand the last half of this week, has already arrived here. The play is a strong one, and justly popular here.

James Moore, an old soldier, who was in the 10th Ohio, died Sunday last at the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, Ohio. He leaves a wife and several children, who reside in West Wheeling. He was a worthy man.

The Sunday News says: "Two prominent business men of this city made a net of $100 on the winning qualities of Hubbard and Pendleton. Twenty-five years ago they were old friends and yesterday the Sixth ward that Hubbard would draw the prize with no takers."

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Dr. D. H. Taylor has returned from an extended visit to the West, and has fully recovered his health.

Mr. John W. Vogel, representing Primrose & West's Mammoth Mills, is in the city making arrangements for the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eoff added much to the enjoyment of the services at St. Matthew's church yesterday morning, she singing solo to his accompaniment on the organ.

Joseph Doebler in Trouble Again.

Joseph Doebler, of Ballaire, who had trouble with Arbuckle & Co. on account of some irregularity, is again into a scrape, and a very serious one.

Some time ago he went to St. Clairsville and there remained a list of the Clerks of Court's office, a list of deeds to John A. Grove, N. Taylor, James Nichols and others. Some time ago he went to St. Clairsville and there remained a list of the Clerks of Court's office, a list of deeds to John A. Grove, N. Taylor, James Nichols and others.
